C. of C. Announces Christmas Arrangement Santa Comes Nov. 28

Stores to Open Nightly After Dec. 14 to Dec. 24 For Shoppers' Aid

If Antioch children haven't begun to think of Santa Claus yet, the Antioch Chamber of Commerce has. Meeting at Card's at a noon luncheon Monday, about 25 members of the chamber sent an invitation to Saint Nicholas to appear in Antioch Saturday, Nov. 28 which will be the official opening date of the Christmas shopping season.

The party for the children at which Santa will be present and hand out treats will start at 1:30 p. m. Last year he arrived at 3 p. m., which necessitated a carry over to the next day to take care of the large number of children who wanted to place their requests with him and get their treat.

Decision was made by the merchants to take money from the treasury to add decorations to the ones used last year. At the same time they asked all of the stores to decorate their show windows by the opening date and leave their window lights on at night so that the holiday atmosphere will be created.

Nightly opening of stores is scheduled for Dec. 14 and will continue until Dec. 24. Most stores will close at 9 o'clock. The late hours will give opportunity for those who cannot shop in the daytime to make their Christmas selections.

Junior Class to Give "Past Imperfect" Fri. Afternoon and Night

The Junior Class of the Antioch Township High school will present its three-act play, "Past Imperfect," tomorrow (Friday) afternoon and evening.

The play is a good, clean and wholesome comedy filled with many laughs. The cast includes six boys and six girls. The leading role is played by Lois Plattum. In the play the teen-agers do not understand the reprimands of their parents, whom they believe to be old-fashioned and very much out of keeping with present day activities of youngsters. Mother's past is exposed by her best friend. The conclusion drawn brings out the antics of mother, the humanism and realism in everyday life, and the resultant effect of sympathetic understanding between boys and girls and their parents.

A brief interview in regard to the play was held over WKRS on Tuesday morning, Nov. 3, at which time five students, Elaine Melos, Gretchen Biel, Lois Plattum and David Cain of the play cast and Rosemary Wolf of the advertising committee accompanied the director of the play, Mrs. Jeannette Tulumello, to appear on the morning program.

Special invitations have been sent to the seventh and eighth graders of the eight elementary schools in this community to attend the matinee performance on the special student admission price. The matinee is open to adults also, but they will be required to pay the adult admission price the same as for the evening performance.

The matinee performance begins at 1:20 o'clock and the evening performance at 8 o'clock.

The play cast and committee have worked hard and faithfully to make this play one of the best presentations of our high school.

This play was originally scheduled to be a part of the American Education Week program which occurs from November 8 to 15. Since a conflict arose it made it necessary to present the class play a week earlier, but it is still to be considered as one of the major activities in the training program for American boys and girls in the public school systems.

Sequoias Maul Bisons In Last Home Battle; At Wauconda Saturday

Antioch Eyes Second Place In Conference; Ela Wins Title

The Antioch High School football team gave the home folks a treat and the Bensenville Bisons a treatment Saturday night to the tune of 32 to 0.

Coach Paul Kessenich's boys continued to play commanding football and in this game form is displayed in the final game of the season at Wauconda Saturday, the Sequoias can be expected to stay in second place beneath the conference champions, Ela-Vernon.

"We've got to play this same kind of aggressive ball to win Saturday," said Kessenich who observed that Wauconda has split even in games won and lost this season. "A loss would place us in third position should Glenbrook win."

Antioch has had four victories, a tie, and one defeat so far this season which has been one of the best in many years.

Brilliant downfield blocking and some aggressive play on the line which netted the Sequoias 279 yards rushing, and 31 more in passing for a total of 310, gave the home team a marked priority over the Bisons, who gained only 124 yards. It was the fourth straight defeat for Bensenville, a one-rugged foe.

Recover Four Fumbles

Antioch recovered four Bisons fumbles and intercepted three of their passes. The score would have been greater had three Antioch touchdowns not been nullified by penalties.

Program at Grade School Follows Prize Awards To Children

The Antioch News and Antioch Theatre Halloween party for the grade school children of the community last Friday evening was a big success.

Nearly 400 children paraded Main street in their costumes and then returned to the grade school auditorium where prizes were awarded and entertainment provided.

Supt. Richard Whitacre and his staff of teachers supervised the children who marched according to grades. Charles Larsen of the police force led the parade and Arthur Wertz, a patrol boy carried the flag. James Hogan, another patrol boy served as rear guard. Parents accompanied the pre-school children.

Judging of costumes was done by Mrs. Irving Elms, Mrs. Maurice Radke, and Mrs. Robert Webb. The grand prize for girls was won by Cathy May, a pre-school child dressed as a bunny, whereas the grand prize for boys was divided between Bob Wertz and Bill Carney, who appeared as a horse.

Fred Swanson, proprietor of the Antioch Theatre, served as master of ceremonies in introducing Frank Shepard, the magician, and Louis Top, animal trainer, who entertained the crowd.

Office of Collector Created by Village; Shultis Gets Post

An ordinance was passed by the village board Tuesday night establishing the office of village collector at a salary of $1,000 a year.

Appointment of Clarence Shultis, village clerk, as the collector, will provide a full time person at the new village office in what was formerly the old fire station.

The interior is being decorated and Clerk-Collector Shultis is now conducting the business of his office there.

Collection of sewer and water bills will be transferred to the village office from the banks which now handle the collection.

The new ordinance calls for a $3,000 bond.

In addition to collecting utility fees, the collector will issue licenses, permits, and make a weekly report of his collections to the village treasurer.

The salary of the collector will be paid from the general fund, road and bridge fund, sewer and water fund, and parking meter fund.

Social Studies Department at Antioch High Places Emphasis on American Education Week

The Social Studies Department under the supervision of Mrs. Jeannette Tulumello is attempting to place much stress upon the values of American Education throughout the week of November 8-14.

During this period of time there will be on display types of work and activities carried on in our public school system. Students are bringing for display valuable papers including citizenship papers, deeds to old land grants, a proclamation of Thanksgiving, a copy of the Declaration of Independence, Maps of old land and water routes to the Far West, etc.

It is hoped that others in the community will submit to this department articles for display in the trophy case of our school.

All such articles will be kept under lock and key and will be returned promptly to the lender. The department has discovered in previous years, that there are many

High School Students Vote Today on Plan For New Youth Center

Antioch Township High School students are to decide today whether they want a Youth Center.

A 20-minute assembly this morning was addressed by Harold Cardiff, local merchant, on the possibility and value of a place for young people to congregate under proper surroundings.

The assembly was followed by a 20-minute class discussion period on the matter and a vote on the proposal.

Agitation to provide a Youth Center where the young people can spend their leisure moments was started several weeks ago and a dance was held two weeks ago at the high school to aid a Youth Center fund.

Another party is scheduled for the hours of 8 to 11 Saturday evening at the girls' gymnasium and the profit likewise will go to the proposed Youth Center fund. The last party was regarded as a success and more are expected to attend this week.

Some of the parents have visited the Youth Centers at Downers Grove and LaGrange and are enthusiastic about them. They propose to take a bus load of students to LaGrange on Nov. 14 to see the center there. It is managed by an acquaintance of Coach Paul Kessenich of the Antioch High School staff.

While the parents stand by ready to help, they want to remain in the background after today's voting should the plan be approved, and give more responsibility to the students. Mrs. William Terry, Lake Marie, a parent, said.

The big problem locally is where to find a place for the center.

Willmet Carnival Nov. 13

The Willmet (Wis.) High school is sponsoring a carnival to be held at the school, on Nov. 13. Competition is strong between classes in the selling of tickets.

As the result of the new $35,000 revenue bond issue to enlarge the village's water and sewer system, 480 water users will have to pay more for their water in the near future.

Amortization of the new bonds through revenue will mean that extra revenue must be derived and the village board expects it to come from water since the trustees consider these prices already too low. No increase in the water price has been made since 1920; the additional fees of a few years back were for sewer service.

Harold Warren, representing the bond house of Benjamin and Lang proposed a schedule that calls for an over-all increase of 25 per cent to the limited water user an 50 per cent to the large.

The minimum sewer and water charge would be $4.50 a quarter instead of $3.65, on increase of 85c.

Above 6,000 gallons the cost would be increased from $4.15 to $5.10 per 1,000 gallons and over 8,000 it would increase from $4.65 to $5.70, and above 15,000 gallons $8.15 to $9.90.

The biggest users have been getting water at 11c a hundred gallons which Engineer David Miller says is about what it costs the city in production. This trustees say must be increased decidedly.

Antioch is one of the few villages that gives a discount for prompt payment instead of adding a penalty for tardiness. This will be continued.

It was noted by the trustees that there isn't a single delinquent account in water bills.

The village gave consideration to the issuance of an additional $1,000 bond to provide money for a chlorinator if needed.

Engineer David Miller said, however, the test shows the water pure now with less than one unit of sulphur content (the same as the water now in use) and he doesn't anticipate any impurity in the future. Should that happen, however, the village should have the $1,500 in its reserve fund to buy a (continued on page 6)

Regal China Co. Rebuilding Plant; Cost, $100,000

New Fire Resistant Building to Be Same Size of Old One

Reconstruction of the Regal China Co. plant is under way at a rapid pace and it is expected that by early next year the pottery, destroyed last July 27 by fire, again will be in operation.

Covering practically the same area—the new walls have their footings on the outside of the old ones—the factory building will be one large open room where production takes place, thereby eliminating some of the hazards of the old building, which was built in sections.

Constructed of cement block with brick facing at the front, the new building is said to be as near fire resistant as possible.

The production part will be one story, but the front of the building facing on North ave., will be two stories, with office rooms and a display room occupying the second floor and office rooms the first floor.

A permit was granted to the Regal China Co. by Commissioner Walter Scott after the village board, sitting as a committee of the whole a week ago Saturday, approved the plans and decided the building met specifications as to safety. Trustee Murrill Cunningham said the roof is as fire resistant as can be made.

The Regal China Co. was granted permission by the board Tuesday to construct a sanitary sewer from its factory site to the village sewer connection at Main st. It is not to be used for storm water.

Cost of the new building is estimated at $100,000.

Herman Kravitz will be directly in charge of the new plant, replacing his brother David, who has transferred to the sales division.

4th Precinct Voters Seek Incorporation; Will Meet Nov. 16th

A general mass meeting, to be held at Grass Lake school Nov. 16, will explore the possibility of incorporating the area contained in the 4th precinct of Antioch township into a municipality.

Sponsors of the move, headed by Joseph Malik of Petite Lake, claim a great deal of interest in the project and maintain that the benefits far outweigh the disadvantages in such a move.

Malik was appointed by Beachwood subdivision, of which he is president, to look into the matter at the annual meeting of the subdivision organization, held in August. Serving on a committee with Malik are Wm. Jonas, secretary; Max Slotta and Otto Watson. Malik reports that most of the businessmen of the area are heartily in favor of the idea, and that he expects much support from them.

The fourth precinct includes the southern half of Lake Marie, and most of the land to the east of Grass Lake and west of routes 59 and 21. Population of the precinct is not known, but a great many residents live within its confines.

Malik urges that all residents of the area attend the meeting to discuss the matter.

Community Band For Antioch Possibility

Possibility of the organization of a community band for Antioch has been brought up by a number of local musicians who have enrolled in the evening classes sponsored by Antioch Township High school. About ten adult musicians have already signed up for the course, and it is believed that a great many other residents of Antioch and community will be interested.

Other communities, some smaller than Antioch in the area, maintain bands, and it is felt that if sufficient persons can be interested, Antioch may have a band.

Wm. V. Lahti, one of the backers of the move, said that persons interested may call him at Antioch 500 or 110W; Norman Jedele at 918 or 793; or Howard Gaston at 48, for further information.

The Land Must Produce More

The population of the United States is increasing by 7,000 persons a day. By 1975, government experts forecast, we will have to be capable of feeding five people for every four who sat down at the table in 1950.

There are two ways this can be accomplished. One is to proportionately increase our croplands. The other is to make better use of the land we now have.

So far as the first of these solutions is concerned, it is estimated that, if our present standard of living is to be maintained through 1975, the huge total of 100,000,000 fertile acres will have to be brought into production. So far as anyone can see now, this is an impossible goal. At present we are bringing in only 2,000,000 acres a year, and more than half of this is being offset by the expansion of communities and industrial areas.

Therefore the population problem can be met only by producing much more food, feed and fiber from an acreage which will be but moderately increased.

That, luckily for America's future, can be done through the application of proven scientific production practices along with better land conservation and utilization. And here agriculture has a mighty ally in farm machinery. The machine is the key to making the land yield more—and, at the same time, preserving and improving that land for future generations.

Answers Are Obvious

An editorial in the Jacksonville, Florida, Times-Union presented a compelling case for taxpaying electric power development by private enterprise, as against tax-subsidized socialized government development.

The paper pointed out that the power industry's current expansion program will cost a total of $12,000,000,000, and that by the end of 1956 the industry plans to have raised its generating capacity by more than 50 per cent. Then it said: "Could the government, whose debt is pushing the legal limit of $275,000,000,000, have found $12,000,000,000 more in the next four years to pay for necessary power developments?"

Could the U. S. Treasury, now operating at a deficit, get along without the taxes to be paid by these private concerns?

"Answers are obvious. It would be foolhardy for the government to assume further obligations in the power field, when private companies and investors are ready, willing and able to tackle the job at hand. It would be a financial absurdity for the government to spend for such purposes, when it could be deriving revenues."

This administration has been abused and misrepresented by left-wingers for its policy of opposing socialized power when private power can meet the need. But the American people, who have at last been learning how expensive socialism is, both in money and in lost liberties, are having their eyes opened.

"Maritime Affairs"

A new and timely bulletin entitled "Maritime Affairs" is now being published regularly by a group of American shipping lines serving essential foreign trade routes. It is devoted to the cause of a strong merchant marine and contains facts and information about U. S. maritime activities.

There has been a great need for a publication of this character. We have the dubious distinction of being a major maritime nation without realizing it. The United States has thousands of miles of coast line. It also has millions of square miles in the interior far removed from harbors and shipping. The nearest many of us have come to shipping is the folk-lore of "prairie schooners"—those lumbering covered wagons of the pioneers. Actually, few American industries affect our lives and businesses in as many important ways as shipping.

Since the war every third bushel of wheat of American farmers has been shipped overseas. About half the cotton and more than a quarter of tobacco, dried peas, peanut oil and soy beans are exported. Militarily, the record is equally impressive: 4,000,000 dead weight tons of supplies were carried to Korea by ship. However, in spite of the fact that the American merchant marine has rung up a magnificent performance in recent years, the shipping industry is faced with a critical obsolescence problem. The vast majority of ships will require replacement between 1962 and 1968. Yet today not one ocean-going passenger or cargo ship is being built in American ship yards for private ownership.

This situation is due primarily to a lack of awareness of the importance of regular and dependable shipping service to overseas points. The publication Maritime Affairs is designed to help meet this problem. In the final analysis our country cannot have a strong merchant marine unless the shipping industry has public understanding and support.

NINETEEN RURAL YOUTH MEMBERS TO COMPETE IN TALK MEET FINALS

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2—Nineteen members of Illinois Rural Youth groups will compete in the Talk Meet finals during the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The state finals will be held at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Nov. 17, in the assembly room of Chicago's Sherman hotel. The IAA meeting is being held at the hotel Nov. 16-19.

These finalists are the first and second place winners of district speech contests held throughout the state. The topic for this year's Talk Meet at both the district and state level, is "Self Government Is My Responsibility."

This major topic is broken up into ten sub-topics. No contestant will know what his subject will be until three minutes before he is to speak. He'll draw his subject and then have three minutes to prepare his speech while the contestant before him is giving his three-minute talk.

The 19 young speakers will also serve on the judging panel, along with six others, so they'll be grading each other. First and second place trophies will be awarded.

Members of the committee, which includes Charles Watson, M. C. Cain, Mrs. Elmer Hunter, and Miss Belle Richards, explained that no formal reception for the Rev. Sequoits - Bisons.....

gainer for the evening with 121 yards in 11 assignments. Gallagher picked up 64 yards in nine attempts and Wells, 78 yards in 12 tries. Bill Terry and Warren Brownlee turned in good performances at quarterback.

Antioch's strong defense achieved its third shutout of the season. Outstanding was the work of Joe Pechuli, Joe Gutowski, Allen Maso, punt, Tom McGreal, Jim McMillen, and Paul Eckert in the line, and Brownlee at secondary. Eckert received a hip injury but will be able to play Saturday.

Scores were made by Antioch in the first quarter through a 20 yard pass from Terry to Phil Vos, and after Bob Dua received a Bison fumble, Gallagher ran six yards for one of his three touchdowns.

Jechulis recovered a Bensenville fumble on the enemy 15-yard line in the second quarter and Gallagher again scored.

Vos Intercepts Bison Pass

The fourth Antioch score was set up by Vos' interception of a Bison pass in the third period and Blake later swept end for 13 yards and a touchdown.

Bensenville lost a 90-yard touchdown on a penalty early in the game and then lost the ball in the fourth quarter on downs after reaching the Antioch 36-yard line.

In the last quarter two Antioch scoring plays were nullified, but the Sequoits finally made one good on Gallagher's 26-yard sprint across the goal line after Brownlee had intercepted a Bison pass. Late in the game a 33-yard scoring jaunt by Mike Haviland was called back.

The Antioch sophomores lost a preliminary game 12 to 6. They held Bensenville even in the first half 6 to 6 when a 102-yard run back of a kick-off gave the Sequoits their lone tally.

The game at Wauconda Saturday between the Sophs will start at noon, and the varsity at 2 p. m.

Village Issues.....

chlorinator. New water rates are expected to provide that amount.

The village board approved a $35,000 revenue bond issue Tuesday evening to pay for the new water well and mains and sewer mains now under construction.

The bond issue was $10,000 less than anticipated because of low bidding on all aspects of the project. Benjamin and Lang, Chicago, will handle the sale of the bonds, and a reimbursement of $2,163.15 was made to that company to make up the difference in the 4 per cent interest at the time the contract was made and the 4.58 per cent interest when the bonds were signed.

The first coupons falling due Nov. 1 were clipped by the village, and the extra $10,000 of unused bonds already printed up will be officially burned by an authorized firm and receipt given the village showing their destruction.

The new water well is now completed and is said to produce 800 gallons of water a minute without exhausting the supply. It is regarded as the best well in Lake County.

Mike Reimers, Grayslake contractor, and himself a village president, visited the Antioch board meeting in consulting with Engineer David Miller and said that he would start work today laying water and sewer mains in the area east of the Soo Line tracks and connecting with the present mains west of the track. He operates under the firm name of the Inland Lakes Sewer and Water Co. and has had much experience in the business of laying pipe and tile.

'Twas Different This Year

Halloween was a little different in Antioch this year. The boys started early by hauling a privy to the business section nearly a week before the time, and then waited until Monday night of this week to cause disturbance again. Meanwhile on Saturday night, Halloween night, the six extra policemen costing the village a considerable sum had nothing to do.

Auxiliary News

Membership Campaign

Seeking increased strength for greater service, the Antioch Unit of American Legion Auxiliary has already begun re-enrollment of present members and enrollment of new members for the coming year.

The unit membership chairman,

Mrs. Dorothy Horan, is extending invitations to all eligible women in and around Antioch. Eligible for membership are wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members, those of persons who died in service during the World Wars or the Korean conflict, and those of deceased war veterans, as well as women who themselves served with the armed forces in any of the three wars.

Enrollment of 81,000 women for patriotic service will be the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary in Illinois for 1954.

"For God and Country we associate ourselves together" is the beginning of the Preamble to the Constitution of the Auxiliary. Is it any wonder this organization has grown nationally to be the largest women's patriotic group in the world, with nearly a million members.

There is increased need for services of the Auxiliary caused by adding thousands of veterans from the Korean conflict to the already long list of disabled veterans whom the Auxiliary serves. When the results of war services bring death or disability to a veteran, his children are the ones most apt to suffer. The American Legion and Auxiliary are quick to bring relief when veterans' children are found in need.

The expansion of constructive Americanism activities, promotion of an adequate national security, alertness to the needs of education and activity in our civil defense will be the major interests of the Auxiliary this year. At this time when events are shaping toward a decision, everyone who considers himself or herself a patriotic American should be enrolled in some organization actively serving for America. The women of American Legion families can find a broad field for valuable service in the American Legion Auxiliary.

Music Important

Music is an important feature in the American Legion Auxiliary, because it instills harmony among groups and creates good fellowship, which, combined tend to make for greater cooperation among coworkers. As a part of this program, Mrs. Deborah Van Patten, music chairman of Antioch unit, states that at Christmas time, Auxiliary singing groups will wend their way thru the hospitals and provide entertainment for the patients singing Christmas carols as gifts are passed and opened.

The next regular meeting of the Antioch Auxiliary will be held Friday, Nov. 13 at 8 p. m. in the Legion Home.

For a real bargain—get a real truck!

SURE, you can save a few dollars now on a truck price-tagged slightly less than a GMC. But if you want a bargain that will still be a bargain after years of hard truck-work, ask these questions before you buy:

Does the truck give you a GMC's 105 H.P.? That's up to 19% more power than comparable sixes. It hustles a GMC's top loads up tough pulls—without engine strain.

Does it have a GMC's 8.0 to 1 super-high-compression? That gives you quicker getaways—more drive—better mileage. All on regular gas.

Does it offer a GMC's engine- and driver-sparing

Truck Hydra-Matic*? With it, you say good-bye to gearshift wrestling. No more clutch repairs. Maintenance costs shrink.

Does it have the extra protection of a GMC's self-energizing brakes? The extra comfort of a GMC's "Six-Footer" cab? The handling ease of a GMC's ball-bearing steering action?

If all the answers are "yes," you have a real bargain—a GMC. And there are 19 handsome ½- to 1-ton models to choose from. How can you lose?

Legion Appeals for Hospital Aid Through Attendance at 'Harvey'

The Antioch Post No. 748 in sponsoring the Lakeland Players in "Harvey" at the Antioch Township High School Auditorium Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13 and 14, is hoping to fill the auditorium on both nights of this presentation.

The Legion post feels that the public will enjoy an evening of relaxation and enjoyment and at the same time assist the Post in its endeavor to raise funds for the Victory Memorial Hospital Building fund. The entire net proceeds will be turned over to this fund.

This hospital was founded in 1891 as the Jane McAllister Hospital. In 1918, Fred Brown Whitney's fine gift and an enthusiastic public raised $300,000 to build the present hospital and was renamed Victory Memorial Hospital as a tribute to the soldiers of World War I.

Through funds made possible by the Clara Abbott Trust, the Abbott Wing was added in 1941 and another floor was built in 1950. At the present time, the hospital has a total of 127 beds and 30 bassinets.

Victory Memorial Hospital is owned and operated by the citizens of this area through a board of directors and is operated as a non-sectarian, non profit, voluntary general hospital, and serves all without regard to race, religion or ability to pay.

The present appeal for building funds will buy:

One new two-story wing joining the main hospital building; rehabilitation and re-arrangement of the present building; sixty-six beds in the new wing; enlarged laboratory and blood bank, expanded and modernized X-ray, Physiotherapy and dietary departments; operating room; rooms for polio patients; a chapel; increased powerhouse capacity, and more adequate elevator service.

Robert William Elwood, Aged 8 Months, Dies After Brief Sickness

Robert William Elwood, 8-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Elwood of Wilmot, Wis., died Saturday following a four-hour illness. The parents started to take the child to a hospital but found his breathing growing more difficult and stopped in Antioch to have the Rescue Squad give first aid.

His temperature at that time was said to have been 108 and little could be done for him. He was suffering from pneumonia as the result of an infection, and death occurred before he reached the hospital.

The child was born March 10, 1953 in Waukegan. Besides the parents he is survived by four brothers, Kenneth, Jimmy, Donald, and Dan; two sisters, Jean and Bertha, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Florence McDougall of Wilmot.

The funeral service was held at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the Strang Funeral Home with burial in Wilmot cemetery. The Rev. Robert Smith officiated.

Football Team Given Support This Season; 3,547 Paid Admission

There have been 3,547 paid admissions to the four-home football games at Antioch Township High School. The Homecoming game with Grayslake on Oct. 17 was high with 1,255 spectators jamming the stands. During the current season 1,822 children and 1,725 adults supported the Sequoit squads.

There were many local football fans who traveled with the teams to other schools. Several hundred students and friends witnessed the Antioch-Grant game at Fox Lake.

The football boys, coaches and students have appreciated this excellent support from the community.

Village Officials Spend Profitable Time at State Sewer-Wtr. Conference

Trustees Arthur M. Hawkins and E. H. Glenn, and Building Commissioner Walter I. Scott had the opportunity to tell other village and city water superintendents at Springfield last week that although they were drouth victims Antioch has water aplenty.

The Antioch men heard complaints of poor water and need of heavy chlorination from other villages whose reservoirs were low, and then considered their own village of Antioch extremely fortunate for the drouth has been as severe here as any place in Illinois.

The new well sunk in a veritable underground river, is expected to supply Antioch's needs for years to come.

The local representatives received valuable instruction on the operation of water and sewer systems.

fees must be completed not later than one week after the start of the class.

School officials have been very encouraged by the excellent registration thus far. It is felt that there is a definite need and interest in the Antioch community for adult training and as long as the interest exists the board of education is very willing to organize classes.

Start Classes Next Week
The shorthand course will consist of intensive review of shorthand increasing one's ability to take dictation at higher speeds and to increase the ability to transcribe from shorthand notes.

If anyone is interested in any of these courses organized he is to come to the high school office to register. These classes must be started within the next week.

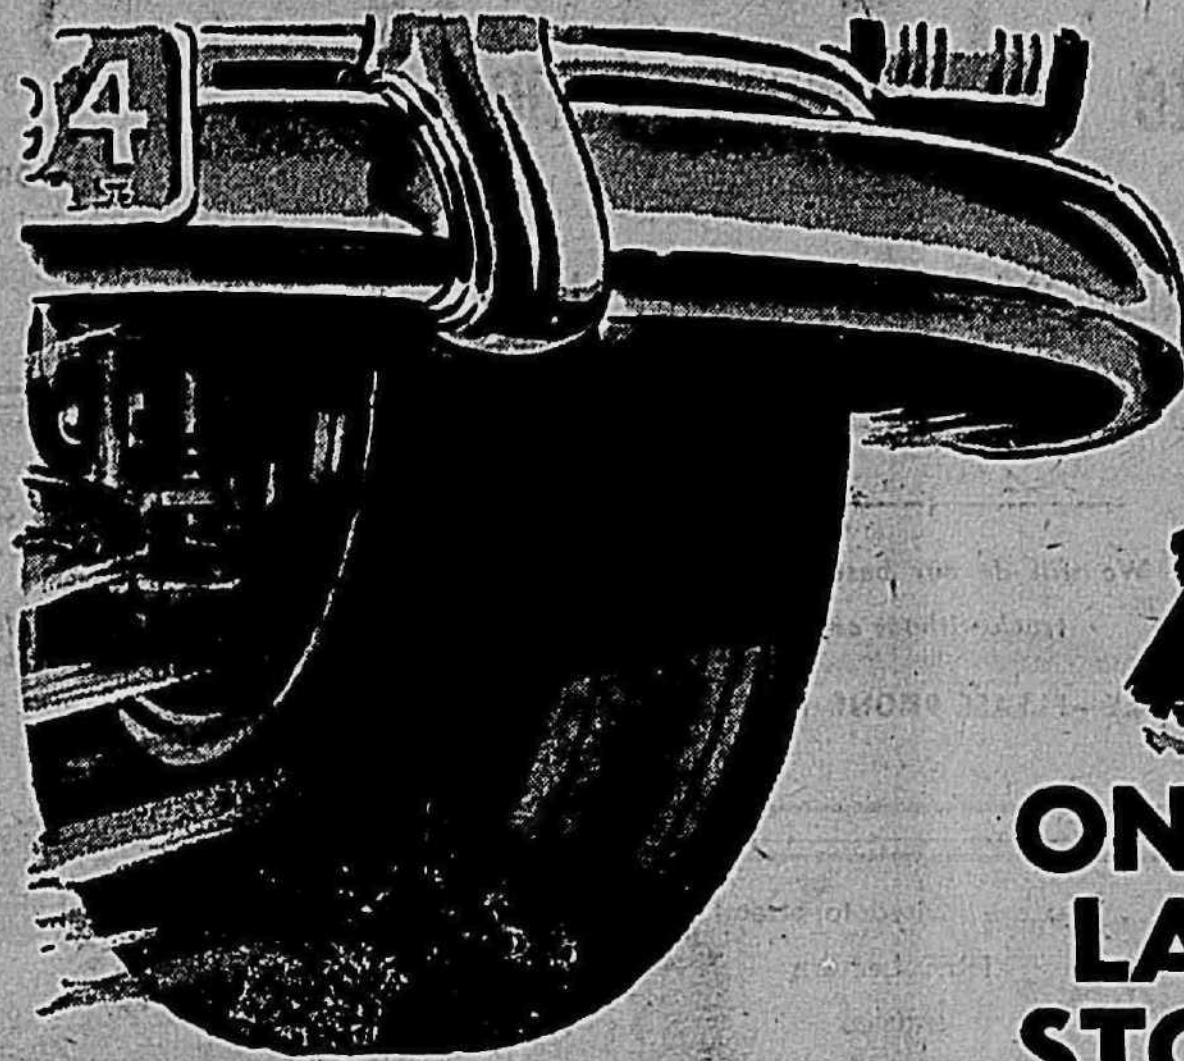

Additional adult students are needed to start Adult Evening School classes in basic English, vocal chorus, band instrumental and shorthand. Ten students must enroll in a subject to organize a class. The people who have registered for the above classes are most eager that more adults register for the above classes.

Basic English is to help those whose speech is influenced by a foreign language and others who wish fundamental instruction. Emphasis will be placed upon vocabulary, basic grammar, spelling, correction of defective sounds, and general improvement of one's speaking ability. Much time will be spent in vocal chorus on sight reading, tone production, correct breathing and interpretation. There will also be practice on musical numbers for an actual performance.

Louis Chenette, music director, says that band instrumentalists will be geared for the German Band idea. The group will play semi-popular and semi-classical as well as typical German Band music. Much time will be spent on developing technique.

SHORT STORY

An Old Tune

By Norman Disher

I OWN a little record shop over on East Lake Avenue called "Gene's Discery". It's a nice business for a man of middle age and I enjoy the people that come in. Don Watson for instance, a nice, clean kid around nineteen just comes in to listen sometimes. He's young but he has a lot on the ball. I sort of worry about him sometimes because he always seems to have troubles of one sort or another.

Right now it's girl troubles, last month it was car troubles. He tells me his trouble is not girls themselves but the right kind of girl. He says he can't find the kind of girl who is interested in the same things he is.

On Saturday Don usually shows up in the afternoon to look through

3-Minute Fiction

Saturday he arrived on schedule and asked me the usual question.

The new stock that arrives on Friday. So today being Saturday he arrived on schedule and asked me the usual question.

"Anything new, Gene?"

"Lots," I have to answer in self defense, "just look in the racks." He's fond of contemporary jazz but he likes a lot of old pop tunes and he collects the originals.

He's been after me ever since I've known him to try and locate an original copy of a Bunny Dawson rendition of "I Can't Get Anywhere With You." It's an old favorite and hard to find. So his next question is usually, "Any luck?"

And my answer, "I haven't heard anything yet, Don."

It's sort of a ritual and after he's satisfied that I'm still trying he wonders over to the new file and thumbs through the labels.

"I see you have some new Tenor Sax work by Stan Webster. He's good, I like him."

Don plays sax in a small combo, pretty good they tell me.

"Say Gene, look at this—I didn't know it was even out yet—this disc by Benny's new sextet—look."

"Just a minute Don, someone is coming in the doorway." It was a pleasant looking young lady. She walked up to me briskly and with a graceful, confident stride.

"May I help you," I asked.

"Yes, I'm looking for an old tune I heard played on a radio program the other night. It's called 'I Can't Get Anywhere With You' and it's by a man that plays a wonderful trumpet."

I looked at her neat features and soft blue eyes. She seemed intelligent and pleasing; a very nice young lady I decided.

"Well, I'm not sure, but if you'll ask my assistant over there he'll be glad to help you. He's more up-to-date on these things than I am."

"Don," I called.

"Yes," he said looking irritated at being interrupted—until he saw the girl.

"Would you help this customer please—I think you'll know what she is looking for."

"Me? Oh! Sure, sure," he replied looking confused.

The girl walked over to him and told him what she wanted. His eyes lit up brightly.

"We don't have any original presses but there are some reissues on the back shelf if you would care to hear them. Would you?"

"Very much," she replied.

They walked to the back of the shop where Don selected a record from the shelf and then showed her into the listening booth. He put the record on and the strain of the old favorite came through the outside speaker. They listened for awhile and then I could see through the glass door that they were talking very seriously, probably about music. The record stopped playing but they kept on talking until Don finally discovered the record was still going around.

They came out of the booth laughing, the girl walked up to the counter and paid for the record. Don looked over at me and said, "This girl really knows her music, Gene. We've decided to go down the block to Wally's Fountain and really get acquainted."

She looked at him and smiled in a friendly way as they turned and walked up the aisle and from the way Don was smiling back when they went out the front door, I knew his girl troubles were all over, for this month anyway.

Once again young men without prior service are eligible to apply for enlistment in the Airborne. See your Army and Airforce Recruiting station at 325 Washington st., Waukegan, Ill., for all the details.

Work on Plans for Driver Education in Rural Areas

Plans to expand the driver education movement intensively in the nation's rural areas, where it is weakest because many small school districts feel they cannot afford courses in safe driving in their high schools, are under way following the 11th annual driver education breakfast conference which featured the insurance industry's participation in the recent National Safety Congress at Chicago.

The conference, sponsored jointly by the accident prevention department of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies and New York University's Center for Safety Education, which was founded and is largely supported by the Association, marked the twentieth anniversary of the driver education movement. It was highlighted by reports of two states which have begun to solve the cost problem in rural sections by introducing a co-operative "circulating course" in driver education in order to make it available to students in several adjoining counties or school districts.

Driver education administrators of 31 states who attended the breakfast forum were offered this cost-shaving plan as one means of providing training in safe driving in thousands of "little red high schools" comprising most of the 57 per cent of the nation's secondary schools which still do not offer such courses.

Future progress of the driver education movement depends largely upon consolidation of effort in rural areas by neighboring counties, school districts or high schools, the conference was told. Several speakers emphasized that the important factor of cost has held back the establishment of safe driving courses in the curriculum of most rural high schools. But when two or three schools, or as many as five, share the expense of starting a course that rotates among the co-operating schools, they said, training in safe driving can be afforded by any rural community, no matter how small.

Dr. Herbert J. Stack, director of NYU's Center for Safety Education, and who has been identified with driver education since its earliest beginnings in the nineteen thirties, said "Skills of the Road" courses in 19 schools in Bergen County, N. J., were among the very first in the nation to teach safe driving to students. After slow early growth through the late thirties and the World War II period, he said, the movement experienced rapid expansion under the National Driver Education Award Program sponsored by the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies. By 1953 total registration in drive education courses had grown to 788,981 students in 8,853 public high schools. Dr. Stack pointed out, but the movement faces a real challenge in reaching the 57 per cent of high schools which are not now offering the courses. Concentration on rural areas will help solve that problem, he declared.

Seek Airforce Enlistments
There's sure a lot of room to move around in the U. S. Air Force. Especially if you've got your sights trained on becoming an Aircraft Cadet. A young man with a high school diploma can earn $5,000 a year as a pilot or an observer. He will get flying training... he will study bombing... electronics... navigation... radar... he will become expert in many skills. High school graduates between 19 and 28½ years of age are eligible to apply. For additional information contact your Army and Airforce Recruiting Station, 325 Washington st., Waukegan, Ill.

MAKE SAFETY
A FAMILY PROJECT

Homes are safer when all responsible members of the family understand and practice safety. Get the family "learn-it-together" habit for cooperation and enthusiasm; use it for safety. For example, make it a family project to show where and how to turn off the electricity, water, and heating system. Teach them how, then let them actually change a fuse, work a fire extinguisher. Show them how the "put-it-away" habit helps every member of the household stay safer from tripping over objects. Makes safety a job for the whole family.

Has Plan to Lower Insurance Rates For Village, Pottery

W. W. Crowley representing Starkweather and Shipley, Inc., Chicago insurance brokers, as the company engineer, received a letter of authorization to represent the village in an attempt to get lower insurance rates through lower state classification.

His proposal, however, was to get the reduction through construction of a new water tower near the Regal China Co., which he also represents, thereby providing more pressure for fire fighting at that factory and at the same time giving additional water pressure to the entire village. Better fire protection would mean reduction in insurance rates from seventh to sixth class he reasoned.

Any attempt along that line is readily balked on the part of the village for where could Antioch get $45,000? After issuing $35,000 revenue bonds it could sell only $10,000 more.

What the result of Crowley's effort will be remains to be seen.

Grass Fire Threatens Garage at Schroeder's

Antioch firemen were called out to extinguish two grass fires the first of this week, according to Clerk Clarence Shultis.

The first call was at Woodcrest subdivision, Channel lake, and the second Monday afternoon was a more serious one on the north shore of the same lake. The fire started at the Collins property, crossed a wooded section to the Schroeder property where it caught a garage and then spread to the Cermak estate.

The firemen put out the fire at the garage and then worked for two hours in the slow process of extinguishing the burning stumps and logs.

October Warm, Dry, With Indian Summer Prevailing Throughout

October was an especially dry month with temperatures far above normal, according to Roy I. Kufalk, cooperative weather observer.

For 17 days, more than half of the month, the maximum temperature was 70 degrees or above, and there were six days in which the mercury climbed above eighty.

The highest temperature for the month was 84 degrees on Oct. 2, 20, and 21. The lowest temperature for the month was 30 degrees on Oct. 29, the only weather cold enough to freeze ice. There were a few light frosts on other dates, however.

There was only .74 inch of rainfall for the entire month, and only four days on which more than a trace of rain fell. The rainfall on the 4th was .29, on the 6th .10, on the 26th there was .33, and on the 27th, .12.

The prolonged Indian Summer is continuing into November, with high temperatures approaching 70 and the low temperatures in the 40's.

Work on the Antioch Grade school addition is progressing rapidly and it is expected that the roofing will be completed this week. Should window sills, not yet delivered, arrive in time, the building can be enclosed and work on the interior continued throughout cold weather. Lack of steel held up construction for a while, but it has now arrived and fine weather made possible rapid work thereafter.

My Favorite Story

By Clarence Gaffey
Antioch

Benny Haviland and I dropped into Roy Paulson's Parkway Restaurant for lunch one noon and stepped up to the bar to order a couple of Martinis to whet our appetites. Eddie Hoff went right to work mixing them. As all bartenders are proud when the correct amount of each ingredient gets into the mixer, Eddie made a particularly careful effort when pouring our drinks into the glasses, to show a couple of old hands in the business just the proper technique. But as he poured the drinks into our glasses he soon realized that a few drops would have to remain in the mixer. Undaunted, he looked up nonchalantly and said, "You just can't figure on the size of olives these days!"
